

Relax – Explore – Connect

We are glad our camp is fully open, praying that your family is well and as you plan with your group to enjoy worshiping close to nature. We are here for you and we are glad that you chose us to come. We know the circumstances are special and we value you and your group needs, we have adjusted our prices and guidelines accordingly, to serve you better. It is every group leader or coordinators duty to make these rules known to their campers and it is their responsibility to make sure their group obeys and respects these rules.

Rules are designed to keep you and your group safe.

- a) Hammocks are free to use however we ask to be notified when you are using them, and we ask parents to be observing their children while using them. If hammock is broken, fee of $10.00 will be applied per broken hammock.
- b) Life vests are mandatory to all that use canoes; no one is allowed on any of the boats without this and children must be supervised at all moments.
- c) Please respect other campers by observing silence after 10:30pm. Gym can be used until 11:00pm so please be mindful of this.
- d) Help us save energy by turning off all lights or video/sound equipment after used.
- e) Help us leave the bathrooms and place clean as you received it, take all your trash to the dumpsters behind the cafeteria (it is your groups responsibility to do so), make sure you utilize the respective dumpsters not the recycling for trash.
- f) If anything is broken or misplaced, please contact camp staff immediately. Make sure to read and obey signs that are around camp and facilities.
- g) Unfortunately, NO pets (exception to service animals only, see Guidelines attachment for more info) are allowed in buildings or rooms and NO food is allowed in all rooms.
